

Gifts and Endowments: A Critical Difference

Over the years gifts and endowments have played a major role in shaping the character of the Ottenheimer Library and its ability to promote the mission of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. It is with deep gratitude that we honor the benefactors who have helped advance UALR through their support of the Ottenheimer Library.

Ottenheimer Library Endowments and Funds:

Annual Fund	Unrestricted
Archives Annual Fund	Archives
Dean's Fund	Unrestricted
Halberg Trust Library Special Projects	Established in 1991 by Harry Nichols Halberg and Edith Lillian Halberg.
Ottenheimer Library Development Fund	Unrestricted

Endowments that support the acquisition of materials and other activities:

Compton Library Fund	Established in 1991 through the generosity of LaNell Compton in memory of her father Thomas Smith Compton. Funds are to be used to acquire materials in the humanities.
----------------------	---

Library Development Board
Student Worker Award

Established in 2009 by the Library Development Board to provide funding for a one-year stipend for one or more junior or senior working 10-20 hours a week in the Library.

Fribourg Fund/Library

Established in 1994 to honor James Fribourgh. Funds restricted to the purchase of materials in the field of History of Biological Sciences.

Owings Memorial Archive Fund

Established in 2000 by the English Department in memory of Sheffield L. Owings. Funds are restricted to purchase of archival materials related to Arkansas.

Sanders Library Endowment

Established in 2000 By Kathryn Wolpers Sanders, former Director of the Ottenheimer Library, to provide unrestricted funds for the purchase of books and research materials.

Traylor Endowed Fund

Established in 2006 by William Traylor, former Director of the Ottenheimer Library, to provide unrestricted funds for the purchase of library materials.

Williams Fund/ Children's Lit

Established in 1998 through the generosity of June H. Williams in honor of her mother Helon Brown Williams to purchase award-winning children's books.